Turn your Passion into Action

In a year filled with unprecedented economic and political turmoil, Jewish Women's Morning at the Capitol (JWMC) gives you the opportunity to stand up and be counted. JWMC empowers would-be advocates of all ages to engage in the political process for the first or the fiftieth time! The event begins with an educational session where attendees learn about key political issues as well as how to advocate. Then the attendees visit their State Senators and Representatives in groups.

The event is free and open to all Jewish women.

Why Attend?

- Learn about timely legislative issues.
- Build advocacy skills toward effectively communicating your position.
- Understand the political landscape in a Jewish and global context.
- Seize the opportunity to meet with your elected officials.
- Gather with other Jewish women from across Minnesota for a memorable experience
- Get inspired to participate in advocacy and action on an ongoing basis.

Please join us!

Come prepared to learn and lobby

We will guide you through the process by:

- Providing driving and parking directions and carpooling assistance
- Arming you with talking points for your legislative meetings
- Ensuring you aren't alone when you meet with your legislators
- Offering home hospitality for those from out state
- Any questions, contact Jodi Wolk at 612-751-9722 or jodi\_wolk@comcast.net; or Judie Liszt at 952-933-4656 or judiel@comcast.net.

PLEASE ARRIVE PROMPTLY

8:45 a.m. Check-in and materials review

9:15 a.m. Program begins

JWMC is co-sponsored by the National Council of Jewish Women – Minneapolis and St. Paul Sections and the Upper Midwest Region of Hadassah.

About the sponsors:

NCJW is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children and families.

HADASSAH, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, promotes health education, social action, advocacy, volunteerism, Jewish education, and research in the United States.
